Centegy Technologies | Banking Solutions

It is imperative for banks and remitting agencies to invest in a solution that is not only trusted but has a proven record in the global market

TRUSTED AND RECOGNIZED

LEADING REMITTANCE SOFTWARE ENABLING GLOBAL BUSINESSES TO GROW EVERYDAY

Every year, migrant workers across the globe send billions of dollars to their home country. For any emerging economy, remittance payments have gradually become the backbone and are a sizeable portion of the GDP.

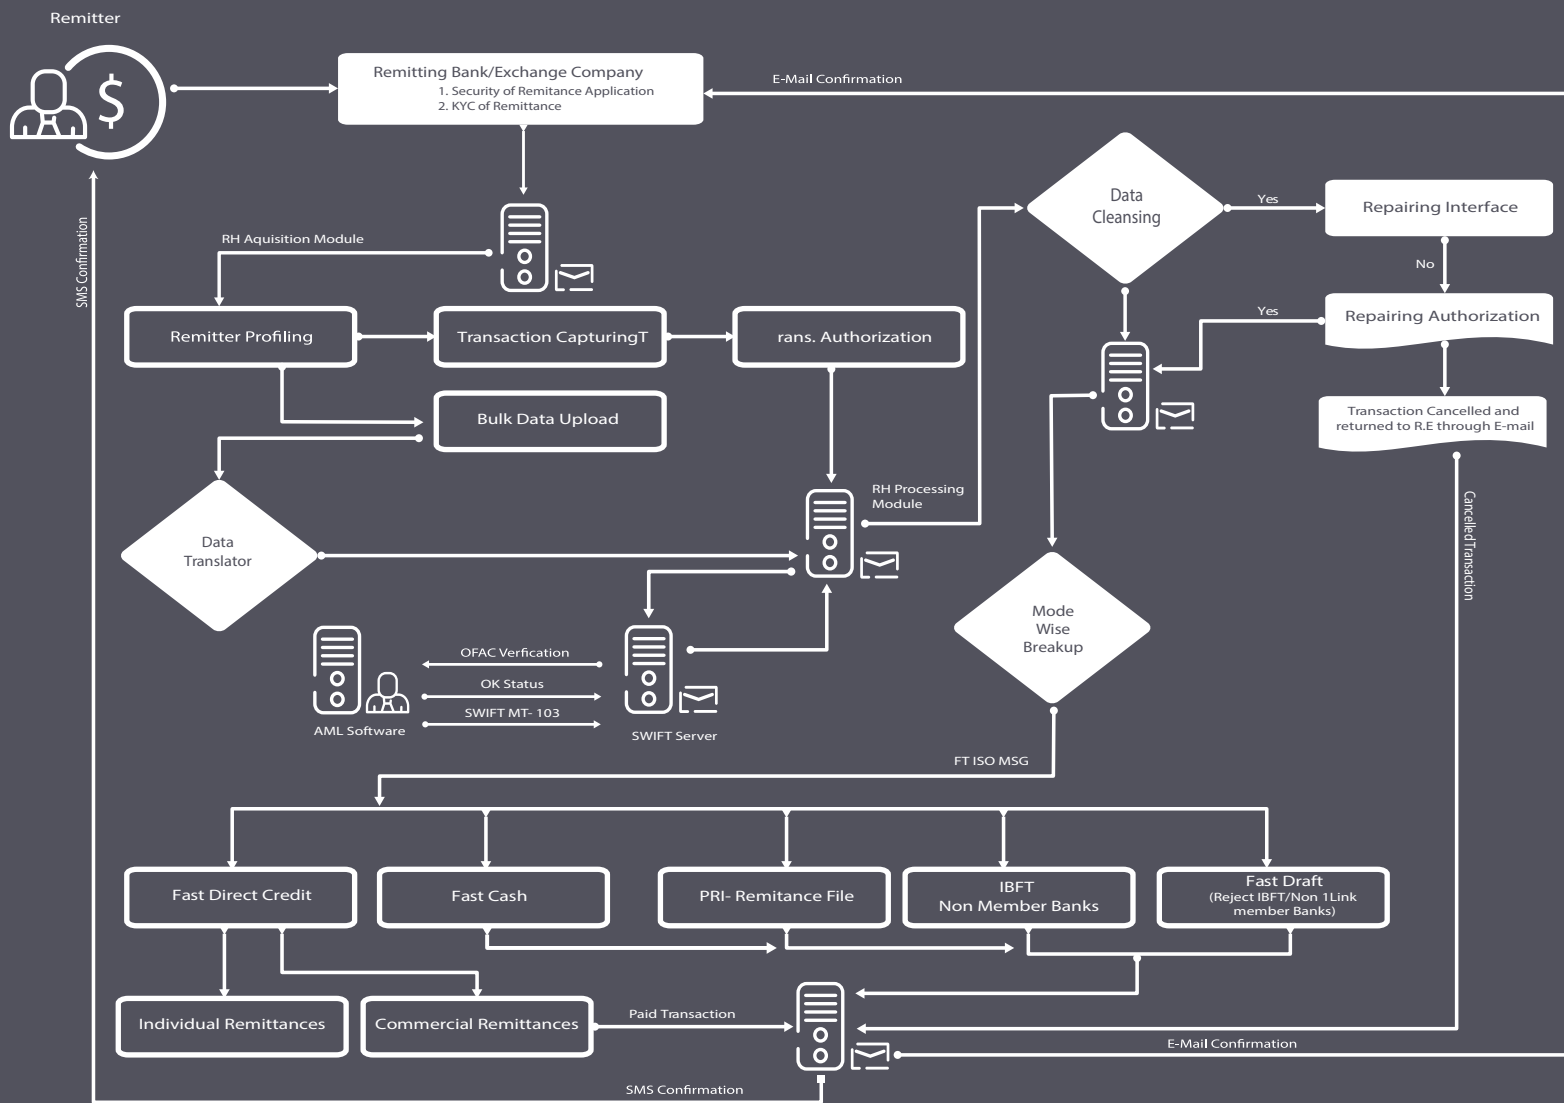

Demographic research indicates that a growing number of immigrant workers hold bank accounts and are well versed with the options of sending cash to their home countries. Therefore, it is imperative for banks and remitting agencies to invest in a solution that is not only trusted but has a proven record in the global market.

Centegy's RemitHome is a unified software solution that is designed to meet the diversified needs of the Remittance Business. RemitHome helps Banks and financial institutions dealing with internal or cross border financial transactions provide customers easy access to foreign remittances.

RemitHome establishes a high speed and reliable network amongst banks, remitting agencies and disbursement partners through the Acquisition, Disbursement and Processing Modules via Straight Through Processing (STP) on 24/7 basis. It's scalable architecture not only ensures greater customer confidence but also enables bank to achieve higher profitability.

RemitHome uses standard banking message formats and security standards to make sure all interactions with internal and external systems are reliable, secure and guaranteed.

RemitHome also records data at all key transaction points which consequently aids auditing and archiving from a regulatory perspective.
